- 15.2 Where clause 15.1 will prevent an issue of Conversion Shares under this Instrument, the Company must use its best endeavours to obtain Shareholder Approval to the issue of those Conversion Shares prior to the relevant Conversion Date (and in any event within 30 days of the Company becoming aware that clause 15.1 will prevent an issue of Conversion Shares under this Instrument), so that the issue of the relevant Conversion Shares may proceed.

 - (c) an encumbrancer takes possession or a receiver is appointed of the whole or the major part of the assets or undertaking of the Company or any of its subsidiaries or if distress, execution or other legal process is levied or enforced or sued out on or against the whole or the major part of the assets of the Company or any of its subsidiaries and is not discharged, paid out, withdrawn or removed within 30 Business Days; or

16.2 The Company shall give written notice to the Noteholders immediately on the Company becoming aware of the occurrence of an Event of Default specified in clause 16.1, giving reasonable details of that event.

17 Action following redemption

17.1 If, on redemption of a Note, a Noteholder fails to deliver the Certificate for it, or an indemnity or to accept payment of monies due to him, the Company shall pay the monies due to him into a bank account which payment shall discharge the Company from all further obligations in respect of the Note.

18.2 The entitlement of each Noteholder to a fraction of a Share shall be rounded down to the nearest whole number of Shares which result from the conversion of the Notes.

18.3 The Company undertakes that, while the Notes remain in issue, it shall (pending either the payment of any redemption monies in respect of the Notes or the issue of the Shares on conversion, each in accordance with the provisions of this Instrument):

- (a) not alter the Articles in any way which would adversely affect the rights of the Noteholders without the prior sanction of a special resolution;

specifying the prospective date of the Adjustment Event and the proposed terms of it; and

- (c) maintain sufficient Shareholder Approval to satisfy in full, without the need for the passing of any further resolutions of its shareholders, its obligations under this Instrument to issue Shares to Noteholders.

18.4 Following an Adjustment Event, the professional advisors or auditors of the Company for the time being shall certify to the Company in writing the adjustments to the number and nominal value of the Shares to be converted which they consider to be necessary so that, after such adjustment and on conversion, the Noteholders shall be entitled to receive the same percentage of the issued share capital of the Company carrying the same proportion of votes exercisable at a general meeting of shareholders and the same entitlement to participate in distributions of the Company, in each case as nearly as practicable, as would have been the case had no Adjustment Event occurred (and making such reduction or increase as is necessary to the premium arising on the issue and allotment of the Shares on conversion of the Notes). The Company shall then notify the Noteholders in writing of the necessary adjustment as determined by the professional advisors or auditors.

19 Provisions relating to the Notes

19.1 The Company shall recognise the registered holder of any Notes as the absolute owner of them and shall not (except as provided by statute or as ordered by a court of competent jurisdiction) be bound to take notice or see to the execution of any trust (whether express, implied or constructive) to which any Note may be subject. The Company shall not (except as provided by statute or as ordered by a court of competent jurisdiction) be bound to enter any notice of any trust (whether express, implied or constructive) on the register in respect of any of the Notes.

19.2 The Notes are not transferable.

19.3 If more than one person is entered in the register as joint holders of any Notes then, the receipt of any one of such holders for any monies payable on or in respect of the Notes shall be as effective a discharge to the Company or other person making the payment as if the person signing such receipt were the sole registered holder of such Notes.

19.4 If any Certificate is worn out or defaced then, on production of it to the Directors, they may cancel it and may issue a fresh Certificate in lieu. If any Certificate is lost or destroyed it may be replaced on such terms (if any) as to evidence and indemnity as the Company may reasonably require. An entry recording the issue of the new Certificate and indemnity (if any) shall be made in the register. No fee shall be charged for the registration of any transfer or for the registration of any probate, letters of administration, certificate of marriage or death, power of attorney or other documents relating to or effecting title to any Notes.

- 22.2 Any notice or other document delivered or sent by post to, or left at, the registered address of any Noteholder in pursuance of these provisions shall, notwithstanding that such Noteholder is then dead or bankrupt or in liquidation, and whether or not the Company has notice of his death or bankruptcy or liquidation, be deemed to have been duly served or delivered in respect of any Notes registered in the name of such Noteholder as sole or first-named joint holder unless his name shall at the time of the service of the notice or document have been removed from the Register as the holder of the Notes, and such service shall for all purposes be deemed sufficient service of such notice or document on all persons interested (whether jointly with or as claiming through or under him) in the Notes.
